

License Agreement

1. License grant

- 1.1. By submitting your contribution (further referred to as “Work”) into the conference you enter into the following License Agreement with Masaryk University, seated at Žerotínovo nám. 617/9, 601 77 Brno (further referred to as „MU”).
- 1.2. By submitting your Work you grant MU a gratuitous royalty-free non-exclusive, worldwide, transferable, sub-licensable and assignable License to use the Work or parts thereof individually or together with other works or elements, unlimited as regards to amount and form and media of expression (including electronic) for non-commercial or commercial purposes, without quantitative limitations (further referred as „License”). The License includes the right to use the Work in original or amended form (including its translations), by all means known at the time of submission, especially, but not limited to reproduce, publish alone or in cooperation with other publishers, distribute, make available or communicate to the public or publicly perform.
- 1.3. The License is granted for the duration of economic rights to the Work.

2. Author's rights

Following the publication of the Work in a conference collection by MU, the following shall apply:

- a) in addition to using the Work as permitted by law, you shall, after permission is granted, retain the right to communicate the content of the Work to the public, i.e. to present or use the content, solely for non-commercial and educational purposes, provided that the primary MU publication is quoted as a source, both in electronic and printed form.
- b) publishing the Work in a collection of your own copyrighted Works is possible, subject to obligatory notification prior to the realization of such publication.

3. Affidavit and liability for damage

- 3.1. By granting the Licence, you hereby confirm you have taken into careful consideration possible existing copyright limitations (in particular the exercise of rights in the case of the work of joint authors, work for hire and specially commissioned work, limitations resulting from previous licensing activities, limitations resulting from financial support, subsidy or grant for the creation of the work) and also confirm you have settled all possible limitations of rights before submitting the Contribution and that the Contribution does not infringe rights of other persons.
- 3.2. In the case of damage arising from permission that has not been duly granted (with reference to the preceding sentence) or that was granted on the basis of false information, you hereby acknowledge your liability for possible damage.
- 3.3. You hereby declare that the Work is unpublished and original.

4. Varia

- 4.1. This License agreement is effective as of the date of your submission of Work.
- 4.2. This agreement shall be governed by the laws of the Czech Republic.
